Elite English Learners' Club

Report on Valedictory Ceremony 2018

The Elite English Learners' Club of the Department of English, Ramco Institute of Technology, organized its Valedictory Ceremony on 10 April 2018 in the Language Lab to mark the successful completion of the club's activities for the academic year.

The programme aimed to celebrate the achievements of the club, recognize the contributions of students and faculty members, and encourage participants to continue developing their English language and communication skills.

Students from First, Second, Third, and Fourth Year enthusiastically attended the ceremony. The programme provided an opportunity to reflect on the various activities conducted throughout the academic year, including seminars, workshops, competitions, awareness programmes, and language enrichment events. The event also served as a platform to appreciate the active involvement and remarkable achievements of the club members.

The ceremony commenced with a welcome address, followed by a presentation highlighting the club's activities and accomplishments during the academic year.

Faculty members shared their experiences and motivated students to continue enhancing their communication, leadership, and interpersonal skills. Participants expressed their reflections on how the club activities had contributed to improving their confidence, public speaking abilities, creativity, and teamwork.

Awards and certificates were presented to the winners of various competitions and to students who had actively participated in the club's programmes throughout the year.

The recognition motivated students to pursue excellence in both academic and extracurricular activities while strengthening their command of the English language.

The faculty members of the Department of English coordinated the programme efficiently and ensured the smooth conduct of the ceremony. Students actively participated in the interactive session, sharing feedback and valuable suggestions for future club initiatives. The event concluded with a vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to the management, faculty members, student coordinators, and participants for their wholehearted support and cooperation.

The Valedictory Ceremony concluded successfully, celebrating the achievements of the Elite English Learners' Club and inspiring students to continue their journey of lifelong learning, effective communication, and personal development through future club activities.
