Report on Shoot n Correct Competition

The Elite English Learners' Club of the Department of English, Ramco Institute of Technology, organized the Shoot n Correct Competition from 01 December 2020 to 10 December 2020 with the objective of enhancing students' grammar, editing, proofreading, and language accuracy skills through an engaging and competitive activity.

Five students from various departments enthusiastically participated in the competition. The event challenged participants to identify and correct grammatical, spelling, punctuation, and sentence construction errors within a specified time limit.

Participants demonstrated excellent analytical thinking, language proficiency, and attention to detail while completing the tasks. The competition provided an enjoyable platform for students to strengthen their command of English grammar and improve written communication.

The faculty members appreciated the enthusiasm and dedication shown by the participants and encouraged them to continue developing their language skills through similar competitions.

The Shoot n Correct Competition concluded successfully, promoting accuracy, critical thinking, and effective written communication.
