EVENT REPORT

Anchorit Competition

Academic Year: 2021–2022

Introduction

The Advanced English Learners' Club, Department of English, Ramco Institute of Technology, organized the Anchorit Competition on 07 September 2021 in the Language Lab. The competition aimed to identify students with excellent anchoring and public speaking abilities who could confidently represent the institution as comperes during various academic, technical, and cultural events.

The event provided a platform for students to exhibit their communication skills, confidence, spontaneity, pronunciation, and stage presence while fostering leadership and interpersonal skills.

Objectives

- To identify talented student anchors for institutional events.
- To enhance students' public speaking and presentation skills.
- To improve pronunciation, voice modulation, and fluency in English.
- To develop confidence and effective audience engagement.

Event Description

The competition commenced with a brief inaugural session, followed by the preliminary round where participants were required to perform an impromptu compering activity. Shortlisted participants advanced to the final round, where they presented prepared compering scripts within the stipulated time.

A panel of judges evaluated the participants based on predefined criteria including pronunciation, clarity of voice, pace of delivery, modulation, confidence, and overall stage presence.
