EVENT REPORT

Anchorit Competition

Date: 22 November 2024

Venue: Language Laboratory

The Advanced English Learners' Club, Department of English, Ramco Institute of Technology, organized the Anchorit Competition on 22 November 2024 at the Language Laboratory. The competition was conducted to identify students with effective communication, public speaking, and compering skills who could confidently anchor various academic, technical, and cultural events of the institution.

A total of 79 students participated in the competition with great enthusiasm. The participants showcased their confidence, fluency, pronunciation, voice modulation, and stage presence through various rounds of the competition. The event provided an excellent platform for students to improve their presentation and communication skills while encouraging leadership qualities and self-confidence.

The Anchorit Competition concluded successfully with enthusiastic participation and commendable performances from all the contestants. The event successfully identified talented student anchors and motivated students to actively participate in future institutional programmes and events, thereby strengthening their communication and interpersonal skills.
