Report on the 4th Interdepartmental Scrabble Tournament

The Advanced English Learners' Club (AELC), Department of English, Ramco Institute of Technology, organized the 4th Interdepartmental Scrabble Tournament for II to IV year engineering students during the academic year 2025–2026.

The event aimed to improve students' vocabulary, spelling ability, time management, strategic thinking, and teamwork through an engaging word-building competition.

Date and Venue

The 4th Interdepartmental Scrabble Tournament was organized from 03.02.2026 to 18.03.2026 in the Language Laboratory of Ramco Institute of Technology. The event was conducted as an interdepartmental competition consisting of online screening rounds followed by final competitive rounds.

Tournament Structure

The tournament was conducted in two stages. The first stage was an online screening round organized to shortlist the best-performing teams from each department. The screening included vocabulary-based and word-search activities designed to test students' language proficiency, spelling accuracy, and problem-solving skills. The shortlisted teams then participated in the final interdepartmental round-robin matches, where they competed based on vocabulary usage, strategy, spelling accuracy, and time-bound performance.

Participation Details

Students participated in teams of two members from the same department. A total of 24 teams registered for the tournament. The highest participation was recorded from the AI&DS and CSE departments, with seven teams each. Civil and EEE departments registered three teams each, while CSBS, ECE, IT, and Mechanical departments registered one team each.

Out of the registered teams, 14 teams participated in the online screening round. Based on the screening performance, the best-performing team from each participating department was shortlisted for the final round of the tournament.

Winners

The tournament concluded successfully with enthusiastic participation from students across departments.
